Primary Held Valid

Judge McLemore of the Suffolk District Court who is holding court here this week for Judge Hundley, was engaged all day Monday in hearing the contested election cases of A. R. Harwood vs R. F. Burke for Treasurer and A. H. Clement vs Joel W. Flood for Commonwealth Attorney. The Judge after hearing argument of able counsel on both sides decided that none but Democrats could vote in a Democratic Primary,and that the county committee had a right to make the rules complained of by contestants which excluded Republicans and independents from voting in said Primary —that the primary law did not take from the county committees the right to prescribe the qualifications of those who should be allowed to vote in a Democratic primary. Therefore, it is the opinion of the court that the said primary was regular and legal and that contestees were entitled to certificates of election and so decided.

In the matter of the contest among the Democratic Committeemen, the court held that the notice of contest was not filed within 15 days after the election as the law requires and therefore said petitions were dismissed; the court holding that the 22nd day of August was not within the time prescribed by law.

The court in up-holding the action of the county committee and the judges of election in excluding voters who honestly thought they had the right to vote and the editor of this paper still believes they had a perfect right vote to in said primary when they complied with the provisions of the legal primary law.

The independents, Republicans and others not regular Democrats who voted for Burke and Flood were allowed to vote without challenge.

The challenge was applied to even young voters and ladies who never before offered to vote and the judges under the instructions of the committee excluded them.

The die is cast and there will never be another primary in Appomattox for local offices until the Legislature so amends the law that partizan or election Committees and Judges shall not have the right to set aside the law and deny people the right to vote in their elections. Let the law prescribe the qualifications of voters in such plain terms that all may understand and take away from county committees and judges of elections any power they may now have to change or alter said law.

It is needless for us to say that we believe in law and order and in parties, and that this paper will support each of the nominees of the primary. We submitted our claims to the court and we bow to his decision. But the fight to rid Appomattox county of any such tactics in elections has just begun, and will be waged until every vestige of unfair dealing in parties and all elections shall be banished.

Candidates Attention

Early in October, about the 8th, there will be mailed out from the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth to county and city electoral boards throughout the State information bearing on November elections. The Secretary of the Commonwealth will only be required to certify names of candidates for the State Corporation Commission and the State road bond referendum.

The bond referendum ballot will have to be entirely separate and distinct from the ballot containing the names of the State, legislative and local candidate. Separate ballot boxes will likewise be necessary for the referendum ballots, as these will be cast in a special election to be held on the same day as the regular election.

Candidates for the House or Senate and for local county and city offices voted on at this election are required to file their notices with the clerks of corporation and circuit courts and their names are required to be certified by the clerk of their electoral boards.

The referendum on the road bond issue, which will be held on November 6th, is regarded as a matter of such vital importance to the State as a whole that voters are being urged in all sections to get to the polls and register their views. Preparations will be made throughout Virginia for handling a heavy vote.

Decision in Contested Election Cases

At a Circuit Court held for the county of Appomattox, at the Court House thereof, October 1st 1923. Present, Hon. James L. McLemore, Judge. A. R. Harwood, Contestant vs R. F. Burke Contestee, and A. H Clement, Contestant vs Joel W. Flood, Contestee.

Upon the complaint of nineteen qualified voters of Appomattox county, namely, S. W. Sears, W. C. Hubbard, W. M. Morris, R. W. Babcock, Z. V. Harvey, Thos. H. Babcock, J. W. Cawthorn, J. O. Cole, A. H. Gregory, G. O. Gordon, W. H. Morgan, M. J. Goin, A. T. Inge, R. S. Wheeler, John D. Plunkett, L. E. Giles, W. H. Mann, R. E. Caldwell Jr., and C. A. Agee, in the first named case, in which the lection of the said R. F. Burke at the Primary election of the Democratic Party of said county held on the 7th day of August, 1923, as the nominee of the Democratic Party of said county for the office of Treasurer of said county to be voted for at the general election to be held on the 6th day of November, 1923, is contested, and

Upon the complaint of nineteen qualified voters of said Appomattox county of the second named case to-wit: S. W. Sears, W. C. Hubbard, Thos. H. B bcock, R. W. Babcock, W. M. Morris, Z. V. Harvey, J. O Cole, A. H. Gregory, J. W. Cawthon, G. O. Gordon, W. H. Morgan, M. J. Goin, A. T. Inge, R. S. Wheeler, John D. Plunkett, L. E. Giles, W.H. Mann R. E. Caldwell Jr., and C. A. Agee, in the first named case, in which the lection of the said R. F. Burke at the Primary election of the Democratic Party of said county held on the 7th day of August, 1923, as the nominee of the Democratic Party of said county for the office of Treasurer of said county to be voted for at the general election to be held on the 6th day of November, 1923, is contested, and

And it appearing that certificates of the election of each of them, to said R. F. Burke as Democratic candidate for Treasurer of said county, and to the said general election to be held on the 6th day of November 1923, said Joel W. Flood as Democratic candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney for said county, have been duly certified, the court doth approve and confirm the same.

It's dollars to cents that no more primaries will be held in Appomattox for county offices

It probably would'e be so hard to enforce the dry law if a lot of stomachs could vote.
